The community of

JOHNSTOWN CHRISTIAN SCHOOL

invites you to share 1975

"MEM-O-RES"

This time,
this place,
these people,
this feeling
is only for once.
Never again will the universe experience
this moment.
Never again will this present self live
right now.

Other students may blossom but a bit differently than these.

Other teachers may teach but uniquely different than these.

Other selves may emerge each with creative identities.

The eternal now, the richness of this moment;
forever, is right now.

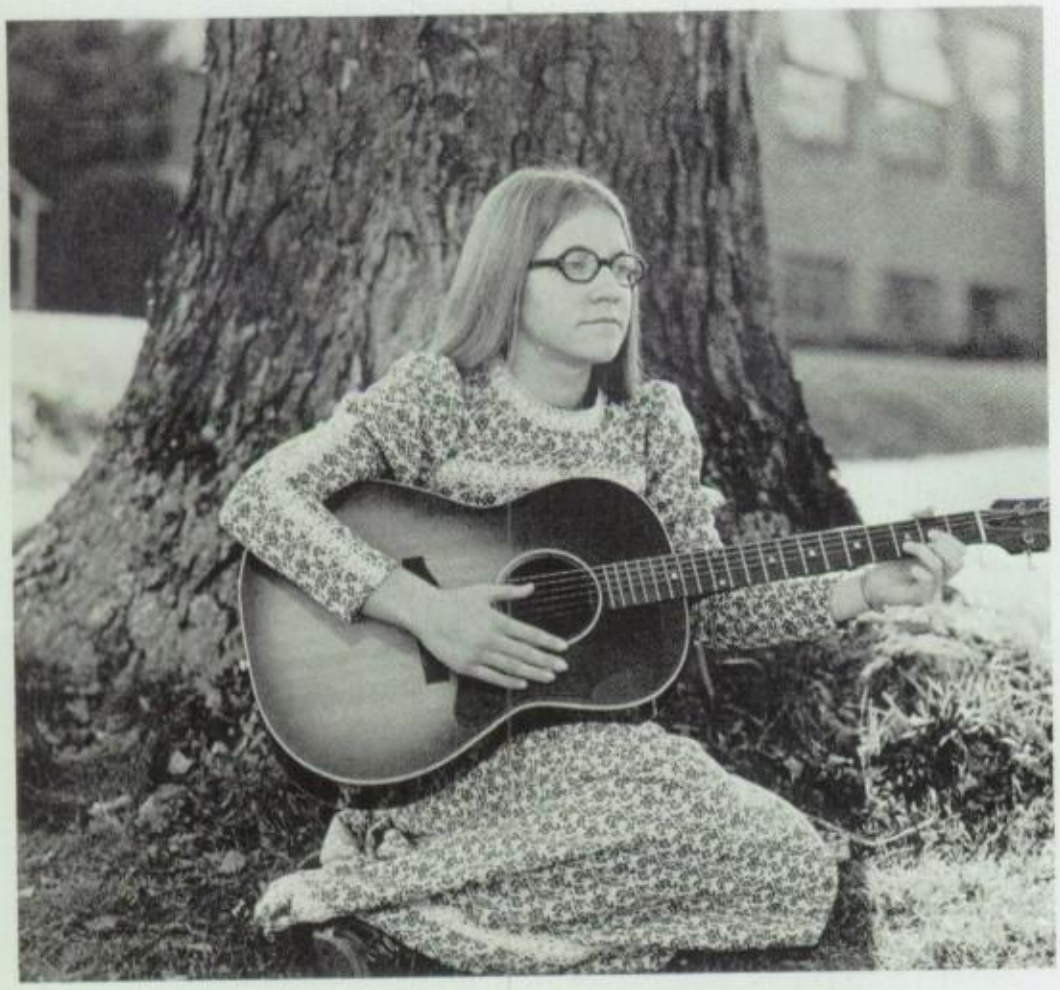
Here, now, in the space-time history
of the universe—

WE ARE A COMMUNITY OF GOD'S PEOPLE.

We as SENIORS, in the past twelve years, have lost our identity and individualism by being involved with others, but they gave it back to us better and more complete than before. We now move on in our pilgrimage; leaving stronger for having been together and the community having enriched our lives.

SUSAN FAY FOLK
"Happy are those who long to be just and good, for they shall be completely satisfied."
--Bible

We, being uniquely different and with our own individual characteristics and hangups coming together.



Growing together as a class,
sometimes painful,
sometimes slow . . . .

Vice President

CHRISTINE JOY HOLSOPPL
"Give us, the one who sings a his work! Be his occupation what it may, he is better than those who follow the same pur suit in silent sullenness."
--Thomas Carly

. . but always growing with new life
emerging through the power of His Spirit.

LAVONNE DENISE KAUFMAN
"Every noble life leaves the fiber of it interwoven forever
in the work of the community."
--Ruskin

RETHA JOY MILLER
"A life that is founded on the principle of goodness, love, wisdom, and power that represents the Christ, has a lasting foundation and can be trusted!"

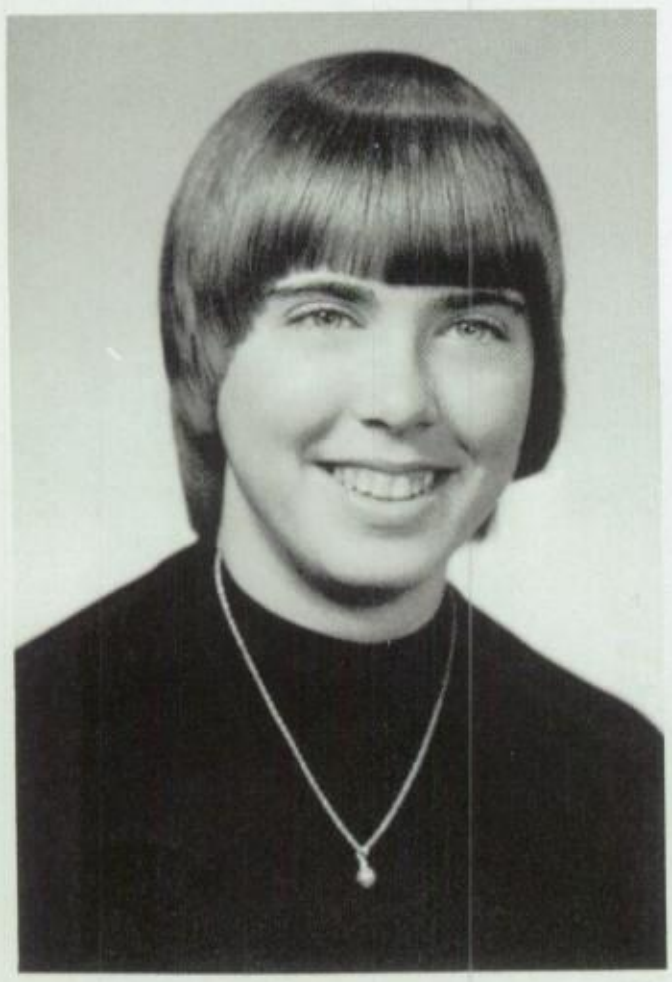
--Stanford

LOIS ANN THOMAS
"Wherever the Spirit of the Lord Jesus sways the heart, there is a passion to serve."
--Anonymous

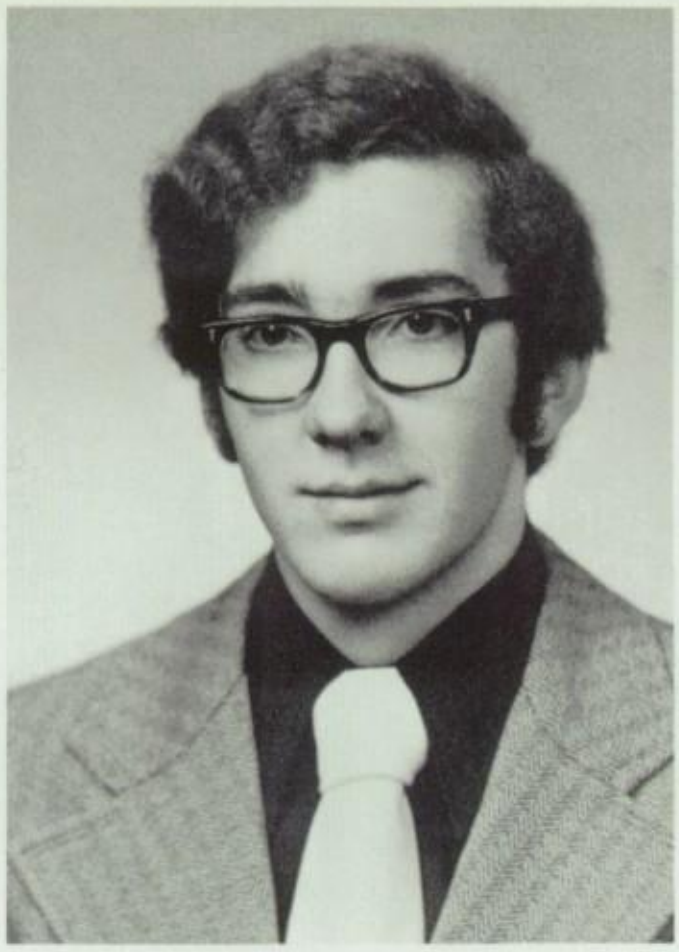
United under one Lord we were molded into a community.

Treasurer



BONNIE LOUISE WERDER
"No one is useless in the world who lightens the burden of it for anyone else."
--Charles Dickens

Secretary



SAMUEL JAY YODER

Life's masterword is work-- with this magic in one's heart all things are possible. It is the touch stone of progress and the key of success."

--White

President

We came by design. We move onward and we seperate. Let us not mourn our parting, but rather celebrate our having been together.
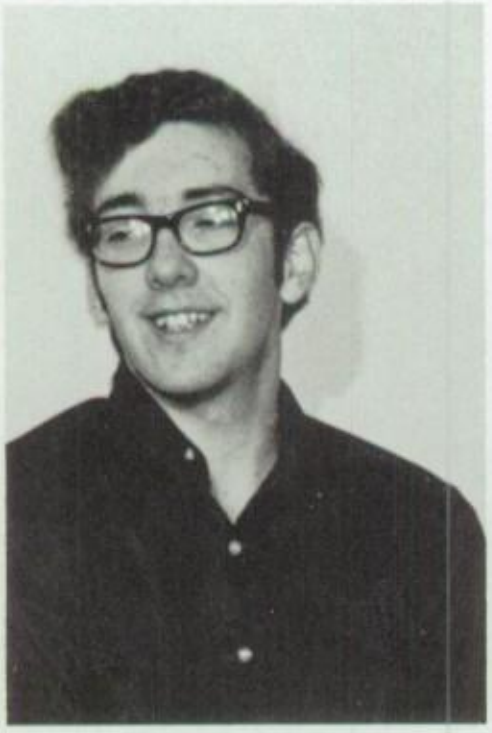
Let us not discuss our defeats, but rejoice in our victories.



We as UNDERCLASSMEN die to our false imaginations and center our lives in that power beyond ourselves; thus we are given new possibilities for living.

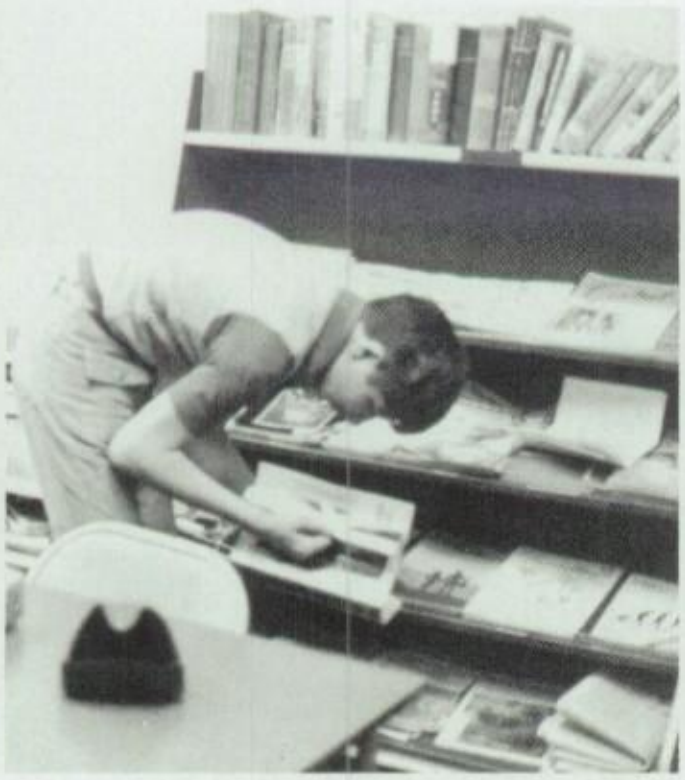
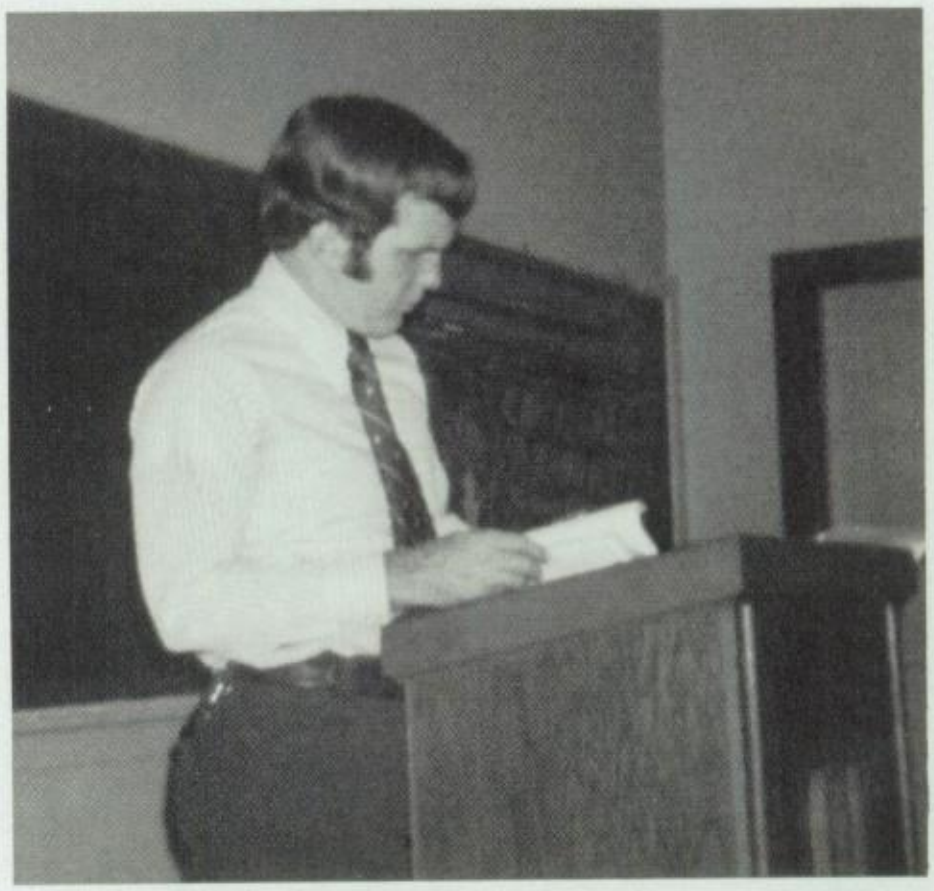
DRAFTING

Who put an eraser on MY pencil?



Celebration, in the setting of SOCIAL ACTIVITIES, is a people going out through time toward a destiny with their treasures of memories and meanings. There is a song to be sung; a game to be played.

RELIGIOUS LIFE



We dared to be honest.

To confront, care, cry, pray and share.

We became a circle . . . . . .

a people of God.

Our only bond and base was . . . .

Jesus Christ.

Planning programs for chapel was challenging.

Our joy through this bond was overflowing,
and we began telling others of our love and relationship with the one God and Father of us all.

Mrs. Rebecca Gascho,
Director.
